April 2025

Members of the Ukulele Club rehearsed a number of great tunes at Cornerstone on Monday

Dear friends,

We hope you had a wonderful Easter and enjoyed the Labour Day long weekend. The Cornerstone community have been enjoying lots of great projects, games and activities at Cornerstone's Drop-In Centre days, including Monday's Ukulele Club. Facilitated by the wonderful team at the Dandenong Mental Health Local, the Ukulele Club meets every Monday afternoon at Cornerstone and is an example of collaborative partnership at its best (pictured above).

This month our team were joined by some new volunteers who have been enjoying the opportunity to support the community, while also learning new skills. Our Pop-Up days in central Dandenong continue on a fortnightly basis, and it has been a great opportunity to connect with local traders, and to share with disadvantaged locals about Cornerstone's services.

Can you contribute to our Winter Warmer fundraising campaign? Every donation will directly support locals experiencing homelessness.

As the weather starts to take a cold turn, we are reminded that many of our Cornerstone friends will be sleeping rough this winter. Your support through our Winter Warmer fundraiser will help us provide a cosy, warm place for homeless locals to spend their days, along with plenty of hot meals to fill hungry tummies. If you can support us, your donation will have a huge impact - and it's tax deductible too! Please click the link below.

I want to extend my thanks to the many supporters, volunteers and partners who make the valuable work of Cornerstone possible. You are appreciated.

Naomi Paterson
